

Cancellation Policy Agreement

The International Soccer Academy provides soccer programs are usually a 10-12 month commitment. In a few special programs, the length is considerably shorter and can be less than 90 days. Our refund policy was established to protect team(s) integrity and follow our strict player development guidelines dictated by by our UEFA A and Pro licenses coaching staff. In the interest of fairness, the additional cost of leaving a team should not be passed on to the other players or affect the organization as a whole. With this in mind, the International Soccer Academy has a limited refund policy. The initial registration deposit paid at registration is non-refundable. In the event your player decides she/he does not want to play for the team, the refundable portion of the club fees paid will be as follows:

Cancellations must be submitted in writing to the Player Admissions Department (admissions@InternationalSoccerAcademy.com) with more than 90 days' notice.

Refund requests before scheduled start of a session will receive a 50% refund.

Note that cancellations due to medical reasons will be handled on an individual basis depending upon the circumstances involved. ALL refunds are subject to a 1.5% processing fee.

Please see complete Player Contract for additional details and assumption of risk.
